

I would be opposed to any new federal law/ruling that may dilute or weaken any aspect of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I consider unsolicited telemarketers to be trespassing into my home. If I want their products, I will initiate the communication. The number of unwanted calls has practically stopped since I signed up on the no-call list. Prior to that, we were receiving up to five calls per night. Thank you.